Any defence played in the offensive frontcourt, which does not incorporate normal man-to-man defensive principals, shall be considered a zone. For this purpose, trapping defences that rotate back to man on man defensive principles shall be acceptable. Trapping defences and double team defences in the offensive backcourt shall be acceptable, but must rotate back to man-to-man defence in the offensive frontcourt.

The penalty for playing a zone defence is a technical foul being charged and entered in the electronic scoring device or scoresheet against the coach ('B').

Only the Court Supervisor may determine whether a prohibited defence is being played. If it is believed that a prohibited defence is being played, please ask for the Court Supervisor. If it is an illegal defence, the Court Supervisor shall instruct the Referees to charge a technical foul against the Coach to be entered in the electronic scoring device or scoresheet as ('B').

Clarification on the No Zone Defence rules can be found in the Zone Buster Manual on the WBA website under Junior Bylaws and BWA website.

This shall remain in effect until the lead is reduced to one point below the specified number for the appropriate age group. Failure to do so may result in a technical foul being charged and entered in the electronic scoring device or scoresheet against the Coach ('B').

It is the Coach's responsibility to ensure their Team adheres to this rule.
